RECENT EVENTS

10-12th June UK/US Shingo Summit 2009

The fourth UK/US Shingo Summit at the Hilton Hotel in Manchester will give delegates the opportunity to hear from world leading authorities on lean and operational excellence and practitioners at the cutting edge of business transformation.

There will be eight keynote speakers from both sides of the Atlantic, 25 best practice presentations and workshops from international industry and thought leaders, as well as best practice site visits giving vivid demonstrations of excellence in action at some of the UK's top manufacturing businesses.

Keynote speakers include:

- Steven Spear (Senior Lecturer at the world renowned Massachusetts Institute of Technology and author of Shingo Prize winning book 'Chasing the Rabbit'),
- author and lean pioneer Norman Bodek (President of US-based PCS and co-creator of the Shingo Prize),

Robert Miller (Executive Director for The Shingo Prize at Utah State University and lean industry veteran) and Max Brown (Director of OC Tanner).

Greater Richmond Partnership, 11th – 15th June 2009

Greater Richmond Partnership offered BABC NW members free, confidential one on one meetings either face to face or on the phone to discuss business queries regarding Virginia. Greater Richmond's key sectors which included life sciences, advanced manufacturing, chemicals, food processing and IT (including creative / media) was incredibly successful as always. Many one on one meetings were made and they plan on coming back Mid Nov, if you would like to start organising a space now please email info@babcnw.org
